Compliments and complaints

What this guide is about

This guide explains what you need to do if you want to tell us that you are unhappy about something or you want to tell us that we have been doing something well.

Who is this guide for

For people who live in a Progress Housing Group home.

Bitesize summary

- Your feedback is very important to us and helps us to improve services
- If you make a complaint, we will acknowledge your complaint within five working days
- We will investigate your complaint to understand what went wrong and why it happened
- We will explain any issues to you and advise what happens next.

Our top priority is to deliver a high-quality service to all of our tenants and customers, and it is great to hear when we are.

However, we do know that sometimes things may go wrong. We want you to tell us if this happens so we can put things right. That way, we can correct any issues, not just for you but for others too. We will always do our best not to make the same mistake again.

We are always grateful when you tell us when we get things right or when you feel there could be room for improvement to know how we are doing.

Different types of feedback

We have three categories for the various types of feedback:

1. Compliments

You are happy with something that we have done and want to let us know to keep doing more of it and let colleagues know you have appreciated the service.

2. Complaints

You are dissatisfied with a service you have received from us and would like your complaint investigated further.

3. Comments

You would like to comment on the services we provide and suggest how we can improve.

Complaints procedure

We have a complaint and feedback procedure that we follow:

Stage One

We will record and acknowledge your complaint within five working days. A dedicated case handler will investigate your complaint and aim to respond to you in writing within 10 working days. If we cannot provide you with our response within this time, we will contact you, explain why, and confirm when you can expect a response.

Stage Two

If you remain dissatisfied following our Stage One response, you can request a review of your complaint by a senior manager.

There are some exceptions to a complaint being able to progress to Stage Two. If your complaint falls under these exceptions, we will ensure that you are advised of this, and we will guide you on your next steps. We will acknowledge and progress your complaint within five working days. A manager will review your complaint and aim to respond to you in writing within 20 working days.

If we cannot provide you with our response within this time, we will contact you, explain why and confirm when you can expect our response.

You can contact the Housing Ombudsman. However, we aim to resolve your complaint by following our complaints process.
